BIG BILL GIVES FINAL BLOW TO SALOONS

Mayor Thompson Turns Down Plea of Liquor Dealers to Open at 1 P. M., Sundays—Why License
Board Was Named—Saloonkeepers Plan Action.

The organized saloonkeepers of Chicago have made their last effort to get anything from Mayor Thompson. It became known today that two weeks ago Big Bill met a committee of the Liquor Dealers' Protective ass'n, who placed two propositions before him. They were:

1—That he abide by the result of a referendum vote to open the saloons at 1 p. m. on Sundays. This, the liquor dealers said, would not interfere with church services.

2 — That instead of revoking the license of a saloonkeeper who violates the law he suspend the license for a period of time, with a warning that it would be revoked on a future offense. This was meant to save saloonkeepers from being forced to run to politicians to get back their licenses.

Thompson turned down the saloonkeepers on both propositions. A few days later word was passed around that everything would be all right in the future "if they would have patience"; that the mayor was
